- What are pronouns and why are they important? (video)

Student Activism and National Guidelines

■ Wolverines for Preferred Pronouns

- "The founder of the initiative, LSA junior Felix Boratyn, said the group wants the administration to create a space on Wolverine Access to clarify students' gender in the Campus Personal Information section."

■ Central Student Government Resolution

■ LS&A Student Government Resolution

■ Title IX: Dear Colleague Letter regarding Transgender Students

Committee Charge

- Create a process and system for students to identify their pronouns with the University and have those pronouns reflected on class rosters for Fall Semester 2016.
- In Scope:
 - Data collection, storage, and sharing
 - Communication to students about adding pronouns and to faculty about pronoun usage.
- Out of Scope:
 - Addition of pronouns designation outside of class rosters
 - Other areas of change as directed by Title IX to support gender inclusion.

Indicators of Success

- Key stakeholders are heard from and informed prior to, during, and after implementation.
- New processes are aligned with University policies and are legally sound.
- New processes utilize national best practices and best practices for our institution.
- Educational resources on pronoun options and usage are known and accessed.

Gender Pronoun Choices

The Gender Pronoun field defaults to blank for everyone and can always be set back to blank.

There are a number of choices available.

A screenshot of the "Gender Pronoun" dropdown menu open. The menu is white with a blue header bar. It lists four options: "He", "She", "They", and "Other". A mouse cursor is pointing at the "Other" option. Below the dropdown is a green button with the text "SAVE" in blue.

Choosing Other allows for additional values to be entered.
